Sustainability Committee's Charter

BTS Group Holdings Public Company Limited

May 28, 2012

Reviewed and revised on June 14, 2023

Background

Good corporate governance principles play a major role and have been a key part of the business operation of the listed companies. The good corporate governance principles can be grouped into four main categories as follows:

- 1 Rights and Equitable Treatment of Shareholders
- 2 Role of Stakeholders and Business Sustainability
- 3 Disclosure and Transparency
- 4 Board Responsibilities

BTS Group Holdings Public Company Limited (the “Company”), a SET50 index listed company, has good awareness of the importance of good corporate governance and considers it as a key part of the business operation of the Company. For the continuance in the performance, policy development and guidelines of the good corporate governance of the Company, the Board of Directors’ Meeting held on May 28, 2012 passed a resolution to appoint the “Corporate Governance Committee” to consider, determine, review and update the Corporate Governance Policy, Code of Business and Employees Conduct, the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Policy and the Policy and Guideline on Anti-Corruption and Bribery in order to propose to the Board of Directors for consideration and approval, including to ensure the implementation of such policies, handbooks and the relevant guidelines.

The Corporate Governance Committee’s Charter (the “Charter”) was prepared by addressing the structure of the Corporate Governance Committee, Rules of Meeting of Corporate Governance Committee, including Duties and Responsibilities of the Corporate Governance Committee in order for the Corporate Governance Committee to perform their duties in accordance with the objective of the establishment of the Corporate Governance Committee.

The Board of Directors’ Meeting held on March 28, 2014 reviewed and resolved to revise this Charter by consolidating and adding criteria and content to be more extensive in order to promote the good corporate governance of the Company. This Charter was effective on March 28, 2014 henceforth.

Subsequently, the Company recognized the importance to widen the scope of the Corporate Governance Committee to encapsulate sustainability principles and sustainability goals of the organization in addition to good corporate governance. As such, the Board of Director’s Meeting held on November 16, 2020, resolved to amend the name of the Corporate Governance Committee to the Sustainability Committee, and revised the Charter accordingly. In addition, the Charter has been reviewed and amended from time to time to correspond with the organization structure and to promote the good corporate governance of the Company.

This Charter (as amended) shall be effective on June 14, 2023 henceforth.

Introduction

The Sustainability Committee is a subcommittee of the Board of Directors of the Company. The Company believes in the principles of sustainable development as the basis for successful long term business growth, summarized by the concept of meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their needs.

The Company believes that sustainability should be an integral part of the corporate culture and behaviour and is conscious of the primary importance of economic, social and environmental factors to stakeholders. It is also cognisant of the increasing tendency for investors to assess companies against an Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) framework.
